

Proper String Winding

Pull tight →

- 1) Measure the string length at the 12th fret.

- 2) Push down on the string near the post to cause the string to wind underneath itself.
- 3) Stretch each string every couple of inches between your thumb and index finger. (Do not pull away from but rather push across the guitar).